

ATHLETE'S REPRESENTATIVE

The Athlete's Representative of USA Powerlifting (hereinafter "the Federation") is an active athlete who serves as liaison between the administration of the Federation and the Federation members. The duties of the Athlete's Representative include providing information regarding competitions, Federation rules, team selection and determining clarification with the President or his or her designee on issues related to the hereinabove topics.

The duties of an Athletes' Representative do not include serving as a representative for a member, nor do they include providing advice or representing the member in a disciplinary proceeding or specifically, offering advice regarding any legal proceedings against the Federation. The Athlete's Representative shall not offer advice that would lead to formal complaints against the Federation. The Athlete's Representative shall have a fiduciary responsibility to the Federation to further its mission and aims, perpetuate sanctioned competition, and to present the Federation in the best light. The Athlete's Representative shall not engage in or facilitate attacks against individual members or the Federation.

The Athlete's Representative shall adhere to all of the rules of the Federation, including those related to competition, behavior, and sportsmanship. The Athlete's Representative shall follow the Code of Conduct of the Federation and of the International Powerlifting Federation, the Social Media Policy, and Constitution and Bylaws of the Federation. Failure to do so will be grounds for dismissal from the position of Athlete's Representative and may jeopardize his or her eligibility for membership in the Federation.
